Death at the Wheel!

Alberta's rising toll of road tragedies is largely caused by reckless or drunken driving. The character in the approaching car is breaking most of the rules in the book. He's passing on a hill, on a curve, and ignoring the solid white line. Road maniacs should remember that the life they save may be their own.

Lower License Fees?

The Alberta Motor Association is conducting a campaign to get 25,000 motorists to ask for reduced license fees. They cite the case of Ontario where license registration fees are $10.00 for each six-cylinder car, $2.00 in the case of a four-cylinder car.

In 1938 Mitchell F Hepburn won re-election by offering reduced license fees, and shortly after the election promptly boosted the gasoline tax by 2c per gallon! We disagree with Hepburn's political ethics, but think it would be fairer to all motorists to make the registration fee only nominal and get revenue from the gasoline tax. Then each motorist would pay in exact proportion to his use of his truck or auto.

With Alberta main gravel roads in such deplorable condition, however, wouldn't it be better to increase the gasoline tax, keep the registration fee on its present high level, and make these gravel highways fit to travel on? Where a motorist might save $20.00 a year on his license fees, it costs him probably another $20.00 per month in extra vehicle upkeep expenses because the main gravel roads have been thoroughly neglected these past few years.

Farmers on Strike

The Deane Agricultural Service is responsible for the following brief article printed in the Co-operative Digest published at Ithaca New York:

"Whoever heard of a farmer going on strike? He lives so close to nature that the waste and everything else that goes with a work stoppage seems ridiculous. Just try to visualize a farm strike that would last seven days?"

"In that short time 272,724,000 gallons of milk would be wasted and 99,385,000 dozen eggs would never be gathered. If the strike came during harvest much grain would be lost, possibly as much as 80,937,000 bushels of wheat and 53,374,000 bushels of oats. That is enough wheat to make 5,341,842,000 loaves of bread—enough oats to supply all the feed and seed oats used in eleven northeastern states, including New York, for one year."

"Then think of the vegetables and fruit that would be lost. It is hard even to imagine the food that would be lost if every farmer went on strike for one week at the peak of the harvest season."

Warning to Russia

It seems to us that the most important announcement made by the foreign ministers of the United States, Great Britain and France, during their recent conference, is that which makes plain the determination that an act of aggression against the West German Federal Republic will be regarded as an attack upon the United States, Great Britain and France.

The decision to consider an attack against the West German Federal Republic an attack upon the free powers constitutes a significant warning to Soviet Russia. Under this declaration, we assume, if the Soviet-sponsored forces of East Germany commit aggression against the West Germans, the forces of the free nations will be used to stop the attack. The plain intent of the declaration is to give a warning that aggression whether from East Germans or from Russians, will be met with force.

'Liberty, Benevolence, Concord'

By RAYMOND ARGYLE

The noble slogan of one of North America's leading fraternal orders, the Independent Order of Foresters, is that of 'Liberty, Benevolence, Concord.'

A big and growing movement, with tens of thousands of members in over 1,500 cities and towns, their slogan embodies their principals, with Liberty representing the personal freedom they dearly cherish, Benevolence representing the kindness they practice, and Concord representing the harmony which prevails within their ranks.

Several new branches of the order have been established recently in Alberta, with more on the way. Although not a member of the Foresters, I was privileged to attend the opening night of the new group in Redwater last week, as a representative of the press, and in this article I will try to impart some of my impressions.

I really didn't know much about the Foresters until a few weeks back when some of their members approached me with news stories about their new court which they plan to launch shortly on Edmonton's South Side. As the South Edmonton Sun is one of the papers put out by the company I work for, they were of course interested in reaching as great as possible a number of South Side residents.

When our group arrived in Redwater after travelling over the roughest roads this side of Hades, we gathered in an unused hall of the Igloo Cafe, which will serve as the group's headquarters there.

About 150 people jammed into the small hall. Members of the new court were initiated in an impressive ceremony that lacked not at all in pageantry, with a half dozen representative members receiving initiation at the front of the hall.

In democratic procedure officers were elected to head the new court. Then a name had to be decided upon. In the words of Jack Smith, High Chief Ranger for Alberta, from Edmonton's South Side, local courts select original names, such as Edmonton's Court Gateway; the court of the Windy West in Lethbridge.

Several of the Redwaterites spoke up, offering their selections, with the assembly choosing the very appropriate term, 'Court Black Gold' for the new group.

Following presentation of 'robies' of office to the new executive, the gathering was treated to a fine variety of entertainment which ended the session in an enjoyable manner.

Thus the Foresters, with their unique policy which offers fraternity and insurance to their members, have completed another link in their growing chain of courts. It's also another contribution to the progress and welfare of Alberta.

Scriptural Meditations

"Keep your wants, your joys, your sorrows, your cares, and your fears, before God. You cannot burden Him; you cannot weary Him. He who numbers the hairs of your head is not indifferent to the wants of His children. The Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy."—James 5:11. His heart of love is touched by our sorrows, and even by our utterances of them.

"Take to Him everything that perplexes the mind. Nothing is too great for Him to bear, for He holds up worlds. He rules over all the affairs of the universe. Nothing that in any way concerns our peace is too small for Him to notice. There is no chapter in our experience too dark for Him to read; there is no perplexity too difficult for Him to unravel."

"No calamity can befall the least of His children, no anxiety harass the soul, no joy cheer, no sorrow grieve escape the lips of which Our Heavenly Father is observant, or in which He takes no immediate interest. He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds."—Ps. 147:3.

"The relations Between God and each soul are as distinct and full as though there were not another soul upon the earth to share His watchcare, not another soul for whom He gave His Beloved Son."

Rural Electrification

Dear Sir,—I have read with some disgust an article written by T. W. Pue on Rural Electrification, found in your newspaper last week under the heading "How to Get It Sooner."

The question is: not how to get it sooner, but how to get it on terms that will do the farmer and his farm justice over the years.

Do you not think it is the height of stupidity or depth of folly for a farmer to commit himself to a 20 year agreement in times of increasing price of production—against a declining price of his produce, in a world of such instability as ours is? If history repeats itself, and it does, the government will be forced to operate the power lines of this province—or the farmer will be left in the dark.

Many people fail to realize that the farms in the outlying districts are a direct means of their prosperity. It should be remembered that agriculture has been the main factor in the development of our province—and our cities and towns have been made and molded by the farms around about them. The development of the rural area is as much a benefit to the urban dweller, as the farmer; therefore, if the power companies fail to realize the responsibility which is theirs, should not the development of agriculture be shared by rural and urban dwellers alike?

The large initial outlay of the shareholder under the plan now in operation is financially crippling to the small farm unit, while the large land owner does not pay a proportionate share in the cost of construction.

Are you satisfied, Mr. Pue, to see the urban dweller suffer because of the low standard of agricultural development? Are you satisfied to see the power companies reap profits which entail no risk or outlay to themselves, while the farmer risks everything against the elements of nature—as well as against those who would skin him for his hide in his efforts to feed a hungry world. Surely, it is no wonder in these days that communism finds fertile soil on which to thrive, while men through lust for gold have lost their reason.

Potato King

Dear Sir,—Noted in a recent issue your mention of the Morinville "Potato King." We may not be the champions, but we have him beat. Our largest was of the "Green Mountain" variety, grown of registered seed to a size of three pounds, four ounces.

A "Netted Gem" was three pounds, one and a half ounces, and several "Green Mountains," "Netted Gems" and "Early White Roses" grew to over two and a half pounds. The average size in the whole crop was two pounds, and the potatoes were dug from under nearly two feet of snow.

All three crops are of registered seed. They were grown on the farm of Robert Bauer, four miles south and one mile west of Claymore in the Mannville district.

I wonder if we are the 1950 "Potato Kings"?

Look Up Woman Hater

Dear Sir,—I read your letter about being a woman hater. Have you any reasons for saying what you do about women?

Your mother, who brought you into this wonderful world hoped you'd be a wonderful guy, but imagine what a disappointment you are to her! If she read your letter, she must be deeply hurt by it.

If the women you've been associating with take away everything you've got, including your self respect, how about leaving the gold-digging Eves alone and associating with respectable girls? If that doesn't help, I suggest they lock you up. The world would be better off with one less woman-hater.

New Discovery May Show Origin of First Albertans

By RAYMOND ARGYLE

A definite link has been found between ancient peoples in the old world and the earliest known peoples in this hemisphere, and an archeological party now exploring the north-west may uncover decisive evidence that will give, for the first time, a portrait of Alberta's first citizens.

Currently the party is working in Alaska, where they have unearthed an early settlement, and have discovered more than 2,000 objects that give an outline of the settlement's culture.

And the revolutionary thing about it is that these objects resemble very closely not only ancient tools uncovered on the Alaskan plains, but weapons used in Asia as long as 10,000 years ago.

The party which made this find thinks that the articles discovered are evidence to support the long-held theory that the first settlers in the new world migrated from Asia across the Bering Straits.

But one thing definite is arising out of these searches. And that is that man has undoubtedly been operating on the American continent, and in Alberta, much longer than previously believed.

The age of man, like the age of the earth, is much older than formerly suspected.

Clashing with the theory that Alberta's first citizens were descendants of Asiatics who came across the Straits, and whose future generations evolved into Eskimos and Indians, is the belief that the Alberta Indians are an off-shoot of the Aztecs of ancient Mexico.

And their origin, in turn, creates another controversy that will probably not soon be settled.

However, the search for a common ancestor of the first peoples of America, and Alberta's first citizens, goes on.

What did Alberta look like 50,000 years ago? Were a modern Albertan transported by some time device back into the ages past, would he recognize the face of his native province?

Probably not. The Canadian Rockies were just miniatures in those ancient times, and with glaciers receding and growing over the ages, the characteristics of the land were being constantly changed.

At one time a great inland ocean crept into the Alberta plains (in fact, that's why there's oil here, for the black gold originates from tons of sediment from decomposed sea life), and at another time the Saskatchewan was a roaring, turbulent river a mile wide.

At any rate, the men of science are continuing their never-ending search for more knowledge on the origin of American life, and of Alberta's first citizens.

35 BLAZES CONTINUE

Thirty-five ground fires still are burning in northern Alberta but are under control, officials of the provincial forestry department said this week.

A forest fire at Naylor, north of Battle River, has been brought under control. This blaze had not been previously reported.

SEEKS $10 LICENSE FEE

Strong demands are being renewed by the Alberta Motor Association in seeking a reduction of the motor plate license fee to at least $10, as in Ontario.

President H. R. Chauncey, of the AMA is leading the movement to bring about lower license fees. It is apparent that the campaign will be fully maintained in the hope that it will at last be crowned with success.

Officials point out that Alberta with more than $50,000,000 of "found" money from the disposal of oil rights, is in a position to ease the motorists' tax burden after many years.

They say Alberta motor car owners have every reason to press their insistent demands for lower motor license fees. Too long has Alberta been in the unenviable position of having the highest license fees in the dominion.

While members of the provincial cabinet were reported to have given a car license cut "sympathetic consideration" this year, the AMA will not be satisfied until there is positive action to effect a substantial reduction.

Albertans In Special Force

It's all in a soldier's training for the Albertans of Canada's Special Brigade, seen here in training at Camp Petawawa, Ont. Here they practise river crossing by means of ropes as part of their early training program. Members of the Special Brigade this week received a well-deserved 96-hour leave.

Employment Outlook Good For Alberta this Winter

Alberta's employment outlook for this winter is the rosier since 1947, said J. L. Lindal of Winnipeg, National Employment chairman for the prairies, in an interview in Edmonton last week.

He said demand for farm workers was still near the peak mark with late harvest across Canada delaying movement of 2,000 to 2,500 men from Ontario and Quebec to help with harvest in the west.

In the prairie region conditions had improved rapidly since spring, Mr. Lindal added. On Sept. 21 there were 16,000 registrations on hand in the area, a decline of 33,600 since the peak of unemployment last March.

Construction, agriculture, pulp wood cutting and the oil developments in Alberta had absorbed most of those out of work during winter, Mr. Lindal stated.

High level of employment in Alberta oil fields was the final cheerful note in his report.

May Solve Housing Shortage Here

Success of a co-operative house-building plan in Ottawa may make it possible for half-a-million war veterans to build their own homes with little or no down payment. New United Church Moderator Named

Of interest to Alberta is the recent appointment of Rt. Rev. Clarence M. Nicholson as moderator of the United Church of Canada. TALENT SEARCH FOR SANGUDO

SANGUDO.—Word is going around town to the effect that "The Search for Talent" show sponsored by Associated Canadian Travellers will appear in Sangudo on Nov. 11. You have a little over a month to polish up on the finer arts and get out and do your bit.

Two bad fires are burning at present in the Sangudo vicinity. One is in the Glenister district and the other in the Peavine district. It is to be hoped that there will be no high winds as this could create a serious threat.

The past week has seen several birthdays being celebrated. On Sept. 27, Donna McKen entertained a number of friends at a theatre party. The guests were taken to Mayerthorpe to see what from all accounts was a very good picture. They afterwards returned to the McKen home for refreshments.

On Sept. 28, Grace Gilchrist entertained at her last birthday party to be held in Sangudo. This took the form of a weiner roast. Games were played and everyone had a most enjoyable time.

On Saturday, Sept. 6, little Terry Creighton celebrated her birthday by entertaining her friends. Owing to the cold weather the guests were entertained indoors. We have no doubt that Terry's mother is glad birthdays only come once a year. Nevertheless the little visitors all enjoyed themselves.

Miss Diane O'Neil entertained a few friends Sunday evening in the home of Miss Peggy Holt who married to Mr. Vernon Madlung takes place on Oct. 11.

The first meeting of the Bible Study Group for the new season was held last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins.

Mrs. B. Colwill and Mrs. H. Benson attended the annual convention of the United Church WA which was held in Wesley United Church on Sept. 27.

Last weekend was moving time for several families in Sangudo. The Gilchrist family left for their new home in Edmonton last Saturday. The Thibert family have moved into their new house down by the bridge. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Laap Jr. moved into their new home which they have recently built.

Mr. A. Young was a patient in the Mayerthorpe hospital for a few days. He has returned to his home.

Another patient from Sangudo in the Mayerthorpe hospital recently was Miss Audrey Anderson.

The Company shall during the term of the said franchise supply as much natural gas as may be required by the said Town and/or its inhabitants within the limits of the Town when the places or buildings to be supplied there are situated on land lying along the line of any subdivision lines of the Town, and from the place of delivery of all natural gas supplied to the customers in the Town. The Company shall also install a meter suitably located on the customer's premises, the said meter to be owned and supplied without charge by the Company and be installed at a location to be determined by the Company. The expense and risk of utilizing and using such natural gas after delivery at the said property line shall be borne by the customer.

10. The By-law of the Town authorizing the execution of the within franchise agreement shall be submitted to a vote of the proprietary electors as provided by the Town and Village Act, and shall become binding on the Town only upon ratification of the said By-law by two thirds of the said proprietary electors voting thereon, provided that when the said franchise agreement shall have so become binding, the Town will, at the request and at the expense of the Company join with the Company, in and give its support to, an application to the Legislature validating the said franchise agreement.

13. It is further agreed that at the expiration of the term hereof this contract may be renewed for a period not exceeding ten (10) years (and so on from time to time) with such alterations, if any, as may be agreed upon by the parties and approved by the Board of Public Utility Commissioners, and that, if either party refuses to renew such contract, or if the parties fail to agree as to the conditions of such renewal, then the Town may purchase all the rights of the Company within the Town limits in all matters and things under contract, and in all apparatus and property situated within the Town limits for the purpose of supplying gas to the inhabitants of the Town for such price and on such terms as may be agreed upon by the Company, and the gross rate then for such price and on such terms as may be fixed by the Board of Public Utility Commissioners on the application of either of the parties hereto, but nothing shall be claimed by or paid to the Company for any and all franchises received from the Town. But this clause shall not be taken or read as referring to any property or apparatus forming part of the plant used in connection with the supplying of natural gas to other cities, towns, villages or municipalities.

OIL FLOWS THROUGH PIPELINE AS EDMONTON-REGINA LINK OPENS

Canada's first major crude oil pipeline went into operation Wednesday, less than six months after construction of the 1,127-mile Alberta-to-Great Lakes system was started last spring.

First Alberta crude oil ever moved eastward to market by pipeline started a 439-mile trip from South Edmonton to Regina shortly after 3:00 p.m. last Wednesday when Hon. E. C. Manning, premier of Alberta, turned a valve which officially opened that section of the International Pipeline Company's pipe line. Redwater — Edmonton link has already been operating for several weeks.

Attended by 200 civic, provincial and federal government officials and business executives from many parts of Canada and United States, the opening ceremony was held at the pump station of Interprovincial, on the outskirts of South Edmonton in Stephenson Municipal District. When Premier Manning turned a mainline valve, temporary pumps at Edmonton sent Redwater crude from storage tanks into the pipeline. Speakers who participated in the brief ceremony referred to the pipeline's importance to the economy of Canada through provision of low cost transportation to market for one of the country's great natural resources. Completion of the pipeline itself in the record-breaking time of less than 150 days brought congratulations from several speakers.

More than two years of planning and designing went into the pipeline which took its place Wednesday as an important branch of the Canadian transportation business. Its function will be to carry Alberta crude to refineries across the prairies en route to Superior, Wis., on the western tip of the Great Lakes, where tankers will receive it for transshipment to refineries at Sarnia, Ont.

The temporary pumps started Wednesday will move the crude to Regina until the Edmonton pump station is completely within a few weeks. First deliveries of crude to Regina refineries are expected to reach there by the end of October and by the end of November crude will be flowing through the next 336-mile section of pipe to Grt. Man. Deliveries to Superior are scheduled to start about the end of December.

A TIP FROM ME

By EFFIE RICHMOND

If you like your tomato peeled before slicing for the table, take a tip from me. Put it on a fork and turn like a split over a low gas flame. The skin will split and come off very easily.

When you have mixed your coloring into margarine, take a tip from me and pack it into a small loaf tin. You will find it handy to cut and handy to keep.

D. Mellett Addresses Board Of Trade

REDWATER — Mr. Don Mellett, a representative of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce addressed the Redwater Board of Trade on Thursday, Oct. 5.

He gave his views and that of the organization on how to operate properly to get a larger membership, do worthwhile work in the community and co-operating with other organizations in the community. This organization is organized on a national scale with 675 groups in operation.

A meeting was held in the office of the Royal Bank of Commerce with Mr. C. Barnes acting as chairman. Other members present were Mr. W. Malowoney, Mr. B. Smith, Mr. M. Muzyska, Mr. B. Wise and Mr. G. Brown.

When the system is in full operation next spring, the pipeline will move 95,000 barrels of crude out of Edmonton daily. About 70,000 barrels daily will continue eastward beyond Regina and deliveries to Superior will be about 55,000 barrels daily by next spring.

LETTER TO LOUISA

19-Year Old Considering To Divorce Sailor Husband

Dear Louisa:—I am 19 years old and married to a sailor. I am not happy the way we live.

He wants to sit around in a bar and drink all the time. I don't drink and I like to go to movies and dances but he won't go. I don't have any fun sitting watching him drink. Do you think I should get a divorce? I've been married two years and it has been that way all the time. Do you think a couple could find someone to share happiness with me?

E. L. H.

Answer:

I am not an advocate of divorce if there is a possible way of making a success of marriage, but I really can't see any future for you with a husband whose life is spent at a bar, drinking. You are young and I think you would be wise to tell him that he will either have to change his ways or give you up. Can't you find something that both of you like to do? It always pays to meet a person half way if it doesn't mean lowering your standards of right and wrong.

LOUISA.

Dear Louisa—I am a widow with three children all of whom are married and have families of their own. I feel as though they don't want me, even when I visit them. They don't visit me very often, they treat me as they would a stranger. I live alone and work for my living. I get so lonesome I really don't know what to do with myself. Would you advise me if I could meet some man of my age and marry so I could have a companion?

LONESOME.

Answer:

The best thing that a middle-aged woman, whose children are all married, can do is to find out-side interests. Get interested in church work or civic work. Join the Red Cross and help with community drives. This will bring you in contact with other people and keep you from thinking of your lonesome state. Try making someone else happy instead of expecting others to do nice things for you and you will be surprised how much satisfaction you get out of it.

Don't complain and make your families feel that they have been neglecting you. It doesn't help matters and even cause them to avoid you. Don't answer any "Lonely Hearts" letters either, or you may get in trouble.

LOUISA.

INFLATION GROWS

MONTREAL.—"The forces of inflation are again in the ascendancy," concludes the Bank of Montreal, after analyzing the government's new interim budget in its latest Business Letter.

Whether these forces are aggravated or mitigated will depend as much on public attitude as on any steps government can reasonably be expected to take, says the Review.

ENTRIES POURING IN FOR EDMONTON CURLING BONSPIEL

Big time curling will officially get underway at Edmonton Monday, October 30.

That's the opening date of the second annual Associated Canadian Travellers' car bonspiel, and it is hoped that 128 rinks from all parts of western Canada as well as from the United States and eastern Canada will participate. Keener interest than previously is being shown this year, as it is quite likely that the Edmonton car bonspiel will be but one of two to be held in Canada this winter. The other one, of course is scheduled for Nipawin, Sask., the hottest curling centre in the world.

Names synonymous with curling in Canada are common in Edmonton's entry list. Among those to enter recently are Tom Lorimer of Bentley, who is recognized as the dean of Alberta curlers. Ole Olson, a carspiel veteran of Edmonton, has entered a rink he believed even stronger than last year's. J. E. Johnson of Nipawin has entered with a rink he promises will do justice to the town he represents.

An interesting family rink has been entered from Saskatoon. It's the Jack Simpson rink, 1947 grand challenge winners at the Saskatoon bonspiel. The Simpsons boys are at present employed in Alberta oil fields, but will officially play as Saskatoon representatives.

Frenchy D'Amour of Trail, B.C. winner of the MacDonald Brier three years ago, and Edmonton's carspiel winner last year was among the first to enter this year.

Harry Pollon is chairman of the ACT carspiel committee and Tec Mairs is vice-chairman. Entries should be sent to 10750 109 street Edmonton.

Civil Defence Said Municipal Matter

Consensus at a recent Chicago civil defence conference was that the responsibility rests with municipal authorities, rather than the state or the federal governments according to Hon. C. E. Gerhart minister of municipal affairs, who has returned to Edmonton.

Mr. Gerhart, who is chairman of the provincial co-ordinating civil defence, attended a conference in Helena, Montana, which drew delegates from the western provinces and states, and one in Chicago.

On Thursday, Mr. Gerhart attended a convention of urban municipal delegates in Medicine Hat, where he discussed responsibilities of municipalities in civil defence.

20th Century FARM NEWS

Farmers Will Market 360 Million Bushels of Wheat

Prairie farmers will market about 360,000,000 bushels of wheat during the present crop year which began August 1, according to a survey made by the Canadian Wheat Board.

Production of the prairie wheat crop is now set at 445,000,000 bushels in the latest estimate by the Dominion bureau of statistics.

The quality of the crop will be somewhat lower than last year and the Wheat Board estimates that only 34 per cent will grade 3 Northern or better. About 17 per cent will be 4 Northern and about 45 per cent No. 5 or lower.

To ease the problem of disposing of such a large quantity of low grade wheat there was a carryover at the beginning of the year of about 100,000,000 bushels which was predominantly 2 Northern.

The Board states that at the present time it is too early to estimate the demand for and the probable value of the lower grades of wheat.

Rockyford Youth Receives Award

Howard Roppel of the Rockyford junior wheat club has been named the winner in the Provincial junior wheat plot competition. His plot was judged the best in Alberta and was awarded a near perfect score in this competition conducted by the provincial government.

Gives Advice On Grain Crop

According to Agriculture Minister James Gardiner, farmers should use their surplus grain feed (if they have any), to feed their pigs. "Turn it into pork," said the minister, seen here discussing farm problems with two Ontario farm leaders.

CARE IN SEED SELECTION IMPORTANT TO ALBERTA FARMERS

A. M. Wilson, Alberta's field crops commissioner, points out that saving seed from the best locations is good practice at any time.

In years like this when frost is known to have caused considerable damage to the germination of grains, care in seed selection is particularly important. Oats of seed quality will be short in many sections of northern and eastern Alberta this year. Farmers who harvest good fields of oats that appear suitable for seed will serve their neighbors and themselves to advantage by storing these oats in separate bins and holding them to help supply the demand for seed.

The only sure way of knowing whether or not grain will grow is to have a germination test made, says Mr. Wilson. This service is available from the Plant Products Division, Dominion Department of Agriculture, Calgary, or elevator agents may be able to supply a similar service if requested.

Oats for seed will be in short supply. If you have a good crop, keep in mind there are a number of farmers in Alberta who will be looking for seed before spring.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Christian Living Demands Careful Use of Bible

There can be little growth in Christian living without regular and careful use of God's word, the Bible.

Among all the books written by the hand of man, there is no book like the Bible. Its preservation down to the present time is a matter of wonder. The material in the Bible, while written over a period of more than a thousand years, from the beginning of the Hebrew nation by Moses to about the end of the first century A.D., by numbers of different authors, some known and many unknown, is still a unit. The thread of God's love for man can be traced from the beginning of creation, through the time of the Old Testament and brought to a climax in the death of His Son on the cross at Calvary, that all who live after who believe on Him might be saved eternally.

In the first six verses of Psalm 19, which we are considering in part for this lesson David, the psalmist, wrote a beautiful tribute to God, the creator. Certainly no one was more qualified to appreciate nature than this shepherd boy, who had spent so much of his time in God's great outdoors. The psalmist loved the God of the creator so much he wanted to know him better and one way he could know God better was through the "law of Jehovah," or as we think of it, a study of the Bible.

David's description of God's law is beautiful. He uses a principle of Hebrew poetry which is called parallelism — parallel thoughts which say practically the same thing but with a slight difference of expression. Read the selected portion from Psalm 19 and find the six names which David gives to God's word and the descriptions he has for each.

In order for the Bible to help us in our Christian growth, it must not only be read often, its practical advice must be put into effect in our lives. The Bible tells us the way we ought to act but unless we act that way, it will do us no good. The psalmist tells us that God promises a reward to those who keep his laws. He does not promise us great financial or social gains. Those who know God's commandments are promised the blessing of contentment on this earth and, as Jesus declared, the opportunity to become a child of the living God to know and to do His will, both on earth and in heaven.

Fund Campaign For Blind Underway In Rural Districts

The annual rural campaign for funds of The Canadian National Institute for the Blind opened throughout Northern and Central Alberta on Oct. 1. It will continue until the end of the month.

Officials of the CNIB point out that the campaign is being conducted only in the rural districts because, in Edmonton, the CNIB is a member of the Community chest. They want to remind Edmonton citizens, therefore, to help the blind by supporting the Community Chest Red Feather campaign which also gets underway in Edmonton at the beginning of October.

Ask $20,000

In its rural campaign the CNIB is appealing to the citizens of northern Alberta for $20,000. This amount is needed to meet the increasing demands upon its services and facilities. It must be achieved in order to maintain the present level of essential services for the blind and to carry on the existing prevention of blindness program. Every person in Northern Alberta is urged to support this important work.

For the next month volunteer canvassers will be at work in most communities of northern and central Alberta. These men and women will be donating their time and energy in an effort to make this campaign successful.
